THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

1984-85

I N T R O D U C T I O N

The Institute has completed thirty one years of its existence.

During the year under review, the Institute continued to play its role in its major areas of work, viz., training, research, consultancy, case studies, seminars, conferences and publications.

RESEARCH AND CONSULTANCY PROJECTS

The research and consultancy projects taken up by the Institute relate to various facets of administration. During the year, 14 research and consultancy assignments were completed, the details of which are given at Annexure II.

A number of research and consultancy projects commissioned and/or sponsored by various Ministries of the Government of India, state governments, municipal corporations, public sector undertakings, are on hand.

TRAINING PROGRAMMES

During the year under report, the Institute conducted the Tenth Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration, 14 Management Orientation Programmes, 5 Special Programmes, 15 fee-based Management Development Programmes and 7 Sponsored Programmes. The Institute's Centre for Urban Studies organised 9 training programmes on different aspects of urban administration. In all, 1107 participated in these programmes.

The Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration, tenth in the series, successfully concluded on March 30, 1985. Thirty officers participated in the programme and 29 participants successfully completed the programme. The Panjab University will be conferring M. Phil Degree to the successful post-graduate participants in the programme.

SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

During the year, three Seminars were conducted as under:

1. Regional Seminar on 'Institutional Finance for Rural Development' (Northern Region) from April 27-28, 1984.
2. National Seminar on 'Financing Urban Development in India' from February 4-5, 1985.
3. Seminar on 'Administrative Reforms in India' on March 28, 1985.

COMMITTEE ON CASE STUDIES

The Committee on Case Studies continued its programme with Prof. M.V. Mathur as Chairman, Dr. P.R. Dubhashi, Director as Project Director and Dr. Jaideep Singh as Member-Secretary.

The following volumes are under preparation:

- (i) Administrative Delivery Systems - Asian Experience.
- (ii) Administrative Case Studies (Volume VIII in IIPA's New Series).

PUBLICATIONS

The Institute's Journal Indian Journal of Public Administration continues to be appreciated by the readers both in India and abroad. The subject for the special number which was also the EROPA (Eastern Regional Organization for Public Administration) number brought out in the year 1984 was on 'Planning Systems'. In addition a theme number on 'Rural Development: Some Themes and Dimensions' was brought out.

Four issues of Nagarloek were brought out during the year, one of them was special number, on 'Urban Land Management'.

The Institute brought out 14 other publications. Annexure III gives the list of these publications.

LIBRARY

The Library services were availed of by 3138 persons comprising members of IIPA, members of Faculty and Staff of the Institute, participants of various training programmes and research scholars from academic institutions. At the close of the year, the Library had 1,45,309 volumes.

REGIONAL AND LOCAL BRANCHES

During the year, the local branches at Tiruchirapalli, Villupuram and Budaun were established. With this, the number of regional and local branches at the close of the year stood at 18 and 29 respectively.

A mention was made in the last Annual Report about the Regional Branches organising Regional Conferences on the subject on which the Annual Members' conference is held as a prelude to the National Conference. The Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, Rajasthan and Jammu and Kashmir Regional branches organised the conferences on 'Anti-Poverty programme - Role of the Centre and the States'.

Some of the regional and local branches have been very active during the period under report and enlarged their activities.

A meeting of the Chairmen and Office bearers of the Regional and Local Branches was held on October 14, 1984. A number of suggestions were made with regard to the working of the branches.

The meeting agreed on the necessity of raising enrolment by such branches whose membership has fallen below the prescribed limit to avoid derecognition. It was agreed that the branches may bring out translation of relevant literature on Public Administration in regional languages.

REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Review Committee of which mention was made in the last Annual Report has completed its review of various activities of the Institute and its Report has been submitted.

ENDOWMENT FUND

The Endowment Fund which was created for undertaking specific studies and research activities and also towards publication of such studies, and instituting an Annual Endowment Lecture on major theme relating to Public Administration from the interest accruing from the investment of this fund stood at Rs.19,98,875.21 at the close of the year ending March 31, 1985.

A.6 REGIONAL AND LOCAL BRANCHES

During the year, the local branches at Tiruchirapalli, Villupuram and Budaun were established. With this, the number of regional and local branches at the close of the year stood at 18 and 29 respectively.

A meeting of the Chairmen and Honorary Secretaries of the Regional and Local Branches was held on October 14, 1984. Dr. P.R. Dubhashi, Director, presided over the meeting. The following regional/local branches were represented: Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Jammu and Kashmir, Kerala, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Budaun, Dindigul, Imphal, Jabalpur, Madurai, Patiala, Pune, Sangli, Sirohi, Trichi, Vellore, Villupurum and Warangal.

The meeting discussed in detail the need for establishing linkages between regional and local branches. The model bye-laws adopted in 1982 in this regard provide for undertaking joint programmes by regional and local branches, and that members of regional and local branches, are ipso facto members of local branches. It was decided in the meeting that regional branches should communicate to local branches the seminars/conferences planned by them. It also decided that the proposal for setting up new local branches should be routed through regional branch to IIPA headquarters.

Other points emerging from the meeting included: (i) Giving advance information to Regional/Local Branches about visits by IIPA Faculty and other distinguished visitors, (ii) Display of IIPA publications by branches and display of branch publications with IIPA publications, (iii) Holding of at-least one meeting a month by branches, (iv) Approaching state governments by regional branches for contributions to IIPA Endowment Fund, (v) Discontinuance of sending IIPA publications to such branches as are dormant or have lost membership below the prescribed minimum limit, (vi) sending lists of new members to regional and local branches, and (vii) Sending lists of office bearers (i.e., Chairmen and Secretaries of regional and local branches) to all Branches.

Dr. Dubhashi apprised the office-bearers about availability of funds with State academies and Directorates for bringing out translations of relevant literature on Public Administration in regional languages by the branches.

The meeting also agreed on the necessity of raising enrolment by such branches whose membership has fallen below the prescribed limit to avoid derecognition. It also noted the suggestion of IIPA's Academic Committee regarding undertaking of general educational courses in Public Administration by regional/local branches.

Financial assistance amounting to Rs.1,32,048.20 was paid to the regional/local branches during the year for carrying out their programmes/activities. This amount also includes 50 per cent interest accruing on life membership capital fund.

The activities pursued by the regional and local branches during the year as reported are given in Annexure V.

A.7 CONDOLENCES

DEMISE OF SMT. INDIRA GANDHI, PRIME MINISTER OF INDIA

The Executive Council of the Institute in its meeting held on January 25 1985, condoled the sad and sudden demise of Shrimati Indira Gandhi, Prime Minister of India, and placed on record its great sense of sorrow at her passing away.

Her contribution to national integrity and progress, to the non-aligned movement and to the world peace will always be remembered. The IIPA had also the privilege of having her as the Institute's President during 1970-72. Her passing away is a great and irreparable loss to the country, to the world and to each one of us.

B. ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

B.1 TRAINING

B.1.1 TENTH ADVANCED PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMME IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

The Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration, tenth in the series, began on July 2, 1984 and concluded on March 30, 1985.

Thirty participants from 15 different All India and Central Services participated in the programme. The break-up of 30 officers is given below:

- 26 officers deputed by the Ministries/Departments of the Government of India
- 4 officers deputed by the Governments of Karnataka (1), Kerala(1) and Orissa (2).

The Programme was inaugurated by Dr. P.R. Dubhashi.

Shri R. Venkataraman, Vice President of India and President of the Institute, delivered the Valedictory Address and distributed the diplomas to twenty-nine successful participants.

Shri S.B. Chavan, Union Home Minister and Chairman, IIPA, presided over the Concluding Session. Director Dr. P.R. Dubhashi spoke on the salient features of the programme.

Since 1975, the Institute has been conducting the 38-week Programme in Public Administration, known as the Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration. The Programme sponsored by the Training Division of the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, was intended to train middle and senior level officers of the centre, states and union territories and public sector undertakings. It was designed to promote effective administrative leadership. Its objectives were:

- to promote a critical understanding of the dynamics of interaction between public administration and the social, political and economic environment within which it functions and which it influences, and even seeks to change;
- to evolve an integrated perspective of the different segments of Public Administration and their underlying policies and practices;
- to enhance the responsiveness to people and develop interpersonal skills;
- to familiarise with the modern tools and techniques to aid decision-making in an increasingly complex environment; and
- to promote the administrative capabilities to formulate appropriate solutions to current problems in the light of organisational needs, environmental pressures and national commitments.

The contents of the programme divided into ten main streams each consisting of a number of subjects and topics are given in Annexure-VI.

Lectures, discussions, case studies, participative instructions, exercises, individual and group assignments and seminars were among the methods used in the programme.

As part of the programme, the participants conducted studies in selected villages in districts of Saharanpur (Uttar Pradesh), Kheda (Gujarat), Ranga Reddy (Andhra Pradesh) and Puri (Orissa). The studies conducted in these villages provided useful first hand knowledge of basic socio-economic conditions of the backward communities (tribes/castes) to participants. The reports of the village studies by the participants were discussed in a two-day seminar.

There was also a study tour for two weeks to three developing countries, namely, Malaysia (Kuala Lumpur), Indonesia (Jakarta) and Singapore. The tour was aimed at providing a comparative view of their economic and administrative systems, as well as gaining some useful insights into some specific development projects underway in these countries. The study tour reports prepared by the participants were discussed in a seminar.

Before proceeding abroad, His Excellency Mr CHAN Keng Howe, High Commissioner of Singapore, accompanied the First Secretary of the Singapore High Commission, discussed aspects of public administration of Singapore with the participants of the Programme. A senior officer of the Malaysian High Commission also addressed the participants.

A major part of the programme included the preparation of a well documented dissertation on a topic relevant to some current administrative problem chosen by the participants in consultation with the Faculty. About 2 months were exclusively devoted to the task of writing dissertation based on field investigation, theoretical knowledge, research methodology, survey of literature and the analytical skills acquired by the participants in the programme.

The performance of the participants was evaluated through a rigorous system of examinations, term papers, book review seminar performance, evaluation of dissertation, and viva voce.

An intensive viva voce examination was conducted in which Director Dr. P.R. Dubhashi was assisted by Dr. J.N. Khosla, Former Director of IIPA, Prof. S.K. Sharma of the Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, and the concerned Faculty in the Institute. Some of the External examiners who had evaluated the Dissertations were also present.

The titles of the dissertations submitted by the participants are given in Annexure VII.

Out of the thirty officers who participated in the programme, twenty-nine officers had successfully completed the Programme and were awarded diplomas.

Prof. K.L. Handa directed the Programme. Dr (Mrs) Shanta Kohli Chandra and Shri N.C. Ganguli assisted him as Assistant Programme Directors.

Under the Regulations prepared by the Panjab University for the award of Master of Philosophy in Social Sciences to the successful participants of the Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration, a Board of Control for outlining the programme for the year 1984-85 was constituted by the Vice-Chancellor, Panjab University.

As contained in the regulations prepared by the Panjab University for the award of Master of Philosophy in Social sciences to the successful participants of the Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration, the examination for the M.Phil in Social Sciences at the IIPA was conducted by a Board of Examiners appointed by the Institute during 1984-85.

B.1.2. OTHER TRAINING PROGRAMMES

During the year under review, the Institute organised 14 Management Orientation Programmes and 5 Special Programmes sponsored by the Training Division, Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India under Management Development Programme - I and 15 Fee-based programmes and 7 programmes sponsored by other organisations under Management Development Programme-II. The Centre for Urban Studies organised 9 programmes.

The Programmes sponsored by the DPandAR were meant for:

- (a) Officers of All India Services (IAS, IPS, Indian Forest Service) with at least six years of service;

B.3 CASE STUDIES PROGRAMME

The Committee on Case Studies continued to work with Prof. M.V. Mathur, Ex-Vice-Chancellor, University of Rajasthan, and Member, Fourth Pay Commission, Government of India, as Chairman, Dr. P.R. Dubhashi, Director, as Project Director and Dr. Jaideep Singh, Reader in Behavioural Sciences, as Member-Secretary.

The following volumes are under preparation:

- (i) Administrative Delivery Systems- Asian Experience.
- (ii) Administrative Case Studies (Volume VIII in IIPA's New Series)

B.4 SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

During the year, the Institute organised the following Seminars:

REGIONAL SEMINAR ON INSTITUTIONAL FINANCE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (NORTHERN REGION)

(April 27-28, 1984)

The focus of the Seminar was on the role of institutional finance in the implementation of major development programmes of Government, particularly the Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP). The principal objectives of the seminar were:

1. explaining the conceptual and operational aspects of IRDP;
2. facilitating interaction between field level functionaries concerned with rural development from the government and credit institutions.
3. receiving feedback from the participants regarding practical difficulties in the smooth flow of institutional finance for rural development;
4. arriving at consensus and recommending solutions and policy changes.

The two-day regional seminar sponsored by the Ministry of Rural Development was organized by the Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi from April 27 to 28, 1984. Director Dr. P.R. Dubhashi while inaugurating the seminar had put the problem of rural development, particularly that of helping those below the poverty line, in proper perspective and called for a continuous dialogue between the various officials implementing the programmes on the one hand and the people on the other. Emphasis has also been placed on the need for a decentralised approach to the planning and implementation of rural development programmes and continuous feedback from the field to policy levels of administration.

The Valedictory Address was delivered by Shri M. Subramanian, Secretary, Ministry of Civil Supplies, Government of India. He emphasised the need for a greater sense of commitment to the objective of the IRDP, so that its impact could be felt by the intended target group.

The seminar was attended by thirtysix participants from the States of Panjab, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir and Sikkim. The composition of the group was, eleven participants each from Government Departments and Commercial banks, eight from regional rural banks, two each from Cooperative Institutions and Reserve Bank of India, one each from National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NBARD) and National Institute for Bank Management.

A number of papers, dealing with various aspects of rural development but focusing on aspects of credit and coordination arrangements between the project planning and implementation agencies and financial institutions were circulated to participants which formed the background material. Four papers reviewed the flow of institutional credit to agriculture, allied activities, industries, service and business component of IRDP and coordination arrangements under the programme. The issues raised in the papers formed the basis for discussions in the working groups on (1) Review on credit for agriculture, (2) Review on credit for activities allied to agriculture; (3) Review on credit for industry service and business; and (4) Problems of coordination, general policy issues regarding credit for IRDP.

Prof. A.P. Barnabas and Smt. M. Lakshmiswaramma were the Seminar Coordinators.

NATIONAL SEMINAR ON FINANCING URBAN DEVELOPMENT IN INDIA (February 4-5, 1985)

A two-day National Seminar on Financing Urban Development in India was organised by the Centre for Urban Studies on February 4-5, 1985. The object of the Seminar was to promote a national level debate on the subject on the eve of launching of the Seventh Five Year Plan and to help the identification of issues in their proper perspective and reforms measures required thereof. The discussions at the seminar had three broad foci: (i) dovetailing the urban development plans and the financial requirements thereof in the national plan framework so that the flow of funds are consistent with the critical importance of the sector and also to ensure a rational distribution of financial responsibilities among the central, state, local level public agencies engaged in the task; (ii) Inter and intra agency financial coordination for avoiding duplication of efforts and for ensuring efficient take off of operational financing from the capital execution phase; and (iii) strengthening the finances and their management at the local bodies level for promotion of local autonomy and accountability in the development efforts.

The Seminar had participation from the Central Government Ministry of Works and Housing, Planning Commission, State Departments of urban development and municipal administration, major municipal corporations, city development authorities and academics specialising in the area. The number of participants was forty-nine. In all fifteen papers were presented and discussed on the above various sub themes.

The Seminar was inaugurated by Shri Abdul Ghafoor, Union Minister for Works and Housing. Dr. Raja J. Chelliah, Member, Planning Commission, gave the Valedictory Address. The technical sessions were presided over by Shri Ramesh Chandra, Secretary, Ministry of Works and Housing, Shri Virendra Prakash, Chief Secretary, Delhi Administration and Dr. S.K. Sharma, Chairman and Managing Director, HUDCO.

Dr. K.S.R.N. Sarma and Shri G. Jha were the Seminar Coordinators.

SEMINAR ON ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS IN INDIA (March 28, 1985)
